FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEFF LEVINE NAMED FELLOW OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CERTIFIED PLANNERS

February 23, 2026 – Levine Planning Strategies is pleased to announce that company founder and principal Jeff Levine, FAICP, has been named to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners. Induction to the AICP College of Fellows is the highest honor the American Institute of Certified Planners bestows upon a member.

The College of Fellows invites nominations every other year, with a competitive application process. This year's class includes 55 members from across the country. Levine is one of two members based in northern New England, and the only one based in Maine.

"I'm thrilled to be named along with a list of some of the most accomplished planners in the US," said Levine.

In addition to his work at Levine Planning Strategies, Levine is an Associate Professor of the Practice in the Department of Urban Studies & Planning at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He will be honored with the incoming class of fellows at the National Planning Conference in Detroit, MI, in April.
